This invitation to the 1st Diagnostic Night in Barcelona is not meant to influence you in your procurement decisions. We would like to explicitly point out that we have no expectations regarding the sale of our products in connection with this invitation.

Personal data that you submit to us by registering for this event will only be stored and used for the purpose of executing this event.

This invitation does not extend to third parties and family members.

We ask for your understanding that, for legal reasons, we need the employer's written consent to this registration and the cost assumption by QIAGEN if you are employed by a public institution (e.g. hospital, university). Therefore, the cost assumption by QIAGEN is contingent upon the submission of your employer's consent.
